Who We Are

Who is providing this notice? First Allied Securities, Inc.; First Allied Advisory Services; FASI Insurance Services, Inc. and Cetera Advisory Services LLC

What We Do

How does First Allied protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

- In addition to physical and electronic safeguards, we have implemented security standards and procedures to protect your information, including employee training, limited employee access and the use of confidentiality agreements.

How does First Allied collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- open an account or deposit money
- direct us to buy or sell securities
- seek advice about your investments or enter into an investment advisory contract

We also collect your personal information from other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else? Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.
